Claim for Empire State Child Credit

New for 2018

Beginning with tax year 2018, you can no longer use the amount of your federal child tax credit or additional child tax credit to compute your Empire State child credit. The Tax Law has been changed to base the Empire State child credit eligibility and credit amounts on the federal child tax credit as it existed prior to the federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (Public Law 115-97). Therefore, you will use the federal credit amounts and income thresholds that were in effect for tax year 2017 to calculate your Empire State child credit.

General information

The Empire State child credit is available to full-year New York State residents (see Spouses required to file separate New York State returns) who have at least one qualifying child (defined below) and meet certain income limitations. If the credit exceeds your tax for the tax year, the excess credit will be refunded without interest.

The credit amount allowed is 33% of the portion of the federal child tax credit and additional child tax credit (computed as it existed before the enactment of Public Law 115-97) attributable to qualifying children, or $100 times the number of qualifying children, whichever is greater.

Caution: To be eligible to claim the Empire State child credit, you must provide a correct and valid social security number (SSN) or IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), for you and for each child listed on your Form IT-213. In addition, if you or your child's SSN or ITIN was issued after the due date of the return (including extensions), you may claim only $100 per qualifying child. For more information, see Important Notice N-16-2, Changes to Federal and New York State Filing Requirements for New York Earned Income Credits and Empire State Child Credit.

Qualifying child

A qualifying child for purposes of the New York State Empire State child credit is a child who:

- 1 Is your son, daughter, stepchild, foster child, brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister, or a descendent of any of them (for example, your grandchild, niece, or nephew),
- 2 Was at least four but less than 17 years old on December 31, 2018,
- 3 Did not provide over half of his or her own support for 2018,
- 4 Lived with you for more than half of 2018,
- 5 Is claimed as a dependent on your federal income tax return,
- 6 Does not file a joint federal income tax return for 2018 (or files it only to claim a refund of withholding or estimated tax paid), and
- 7 Was a citizen, national, or resident alien of the United States.

If your child has an ITIN, that child must be considered a resident of the United States for federal income tax purposes, see IRS Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens, for more information.

If you are a U.S. citizen or U.S. National and your adopted child lived with you all year as a member of your household in 2018, that child meets condition (7) to be a qualifying child for the Empire State child credit.

How do I claim the Empire State child credit?

You must file Form IT-213 with your New York State income tax return.

Specific instructions

See the instructions for your tax return for the Privacy notification or if you need help contacting the Tax Department.

Step 2 – Determine eligibility

Complete lines 1 through 5.

Line 3 – For purposes of this credit, federal adjusted gross income means the amount entered on Form 1040, line 7, or Form 1040NR, line 35, less any interest included on Form 1040, line 2b, or Form 1040NR, line 9a, for Build America Bonds as defined in IRC section 54AA.

Line 4 – Enter the number of children who qualify for the federal child tax credit or additional child tax credit, and any child who was less than 17 years old on December 31, 2018, that qualifies for the federal credit for other dependents, whether or not you claimed the credit on your federal return (see the instructions for federal Form 1040, line 12a, or Form 1040NR, line 49).

Note: If for federal income tax purposes your child is claimed as a dependent by your child's noncustodial parent, you cannot claim that child for purposes of the Empire State child credit. Do not include that child on line 4.

Step 3 – Enter child information

Enter the name, including suffix (for example, Jr., Sr., III), SSN or ITIN, and date of birth for each child included on line 4. If you have more than six children, complete the required information for the additional children on Form IT-213-ATT, Child Information for Empire State Child Credit. Enter your name and SSN on Form IT-213-ATT, and submit it with Form IT-213.

Step 4 – Compute credit

Line 6 – Use Worksheet A to compute the amount to enter on line 6. However, you cannot use Worksheet A and must instead use Worksheet B if you excluded income from Puerto Rico on your federal income tax return; or you filed any of the following federal forms with your federal income tax return:

If you filed a joint federal return but are required to file separate New York State returns because you were a full-year New York State resident for 2018 and your spouse was a part-year resident or nonresident for 2018, the credit may be claimed by either spouse or may be divided in any manner you wish. Form IT-213 must be completed by the spouse who is the New York State resident and must include both spouses' names and SSNs. The resident spouse's name and SSN must be listed first on Form IT-213. You must enter 0 on line 17 if the part-year resident or nonresident spouse is claiming the entire line 16 amount. Submit a copy of Form IT-213, and, if applicable, a copy of Form IT-213-ATT with each spouse's New York State income tax return. However, you do not need to submit a copy of Form IT-213 with the part-year resident or nonresident spouse's Form IT-203 if you entered 0 on line 18.
